CCAC (now Tri-County) has a retail store for members, and opportunities for artists and residents to engage in the arts. A free events calendar for all arts activities in the region is found on their website, www.myartscouncil.net.

Lilly Miller Playing on “Lily Pads” at Fasset Green Space, Wellsville

Lilly said “The Green Space instruments are a fun addition to Wellsville. Thank you for your hard work.”

The Fasset GreenSpace Project instruments were manufactured by Freenote Harmony and paid for by the Ralph C. Wilson Foundation of Buffalo. The Fasset GreenSpace can be found on Facebook and at ArtForRural America@gmail.com, or by calling 585-808-0385.

There are lovely spring flowers in bloom right now. Come on over and enjoy a beautiful space.

Poetry Slam Report

Tim Cox, 1st Prize ($50) winner, with Joanne Allen, April 18 at DH Library. One of Tim’s poems, “Still Life with Window” is below:

“Remember-it was just a few weeks back
That dawn came down to day and twilight stayed.
Early glow, then heat, the evening long.
Expansive sky of teeming, vibrant world
Right here breathe more, outdoor—before.

Dark inside this house, around this room.
Since cooling, colder now, I’m feeling how
A mug of tea beside three candle flames
Dispels grim loneliness from solitude.
No wish but sleep, so deep, my soul to keep.”

The 13th Annual Poetry Slam sponsored by AAA was an exciting event. Six poets won a total of $100 with their excellent poetry. Kelly Brainard won 2nd prize and Dan Fox came in third, taking home $25 and $15 prizes. Sheila Kalkbrenner won Honorable Mention ($10).

Plan on April 23, 2020, for the next Poetry Slam!
