Summer Arts Festival Classes for Kids

Many Allegany County young people enjoyed working on art projects at the annual AAA Summer Arts Festival during July and August 2017.

From Canaseraga to Angelica to Belmont to Bolivar to Friendship and Scio and over to Whitesville, kids spent summer hours having fun & learning. Visiting expert Sean Duran of Flower City Arts in Rochester spent two days at Angelica Ink teaching paper making, while Mary Warner, Angelica Ink owner, taught print making. Wendy Skinner of the Fountain Arts Center presented classes including string art, dioramas, plein air art, composition and quilting. Additional groups included jewelry making with Elaine Hardman, pottery with Marsha VanVlack and several classes with Alice Deres and other local artist/teachers.

"I learned a lot!", "I enjoyed the class and hope to come again." were student comments. Using new tools, designing and creating their own objects brought them real pleasure. Plans for SAF 2018 are in the works. Contact Administrator Molly Pike (mwpike11@gmail.com) to apply for teaching in 2018.

Partial funding for SAF comes from the NYS Council on the Arts Decentralization Re-grant Program with support from Gov. Mario Cuomo and the NYS Legislature administered by the Cattaraugus County Arts Council; and from local AAA members and corporate donors. THANK YOU!

Concentrating on their "Plein Air" painting by the Genesee River in Belmont are Wendy Skinner's SAF students in August.
